ABOUT JERRY

Jerry is a VP of Research & Consulting at Conning & Company in Hartford, CT.

One of the roles he filled in a 20-year international insurance career, was a corporate trainer in the Middle East.

Jerry has been trained in the arts of healthy vocal production by opera singers. He applies these techniques in settings ranging from conference and client presentations, to motivational talks at homeless shelters.

Join us on Thursday Sept. 9, 2010 7-9 p.m.
Middlesex Community College

Your voice is a powerful tool to communicate your message whether in presentations, meetings or over the phone. In this interactive workshop, Jerry Theodorou will draw from his voice training and introduce simple techniques to add power to your voice production and improve your personal vocal habits. Jerry's creative techniques will help you to sharpen your voice and become a more effective communicator.

This exciting event is open to the public and is free to attend!

Whether you're a professional, student, stay-at-home parent, or retiree, Toastmasters is the best way to build great communication skills. You'll learn how to successfully organize and present your ideas and yourself. Toastmasters will give you the skills and confidence you need to effectively express yourself in any situation.

Doors will open at 6:30 pm for networking and light refreshments and the event will start promptly at 7:00 pm.
